

Ecological Environment Protection and Recycling

In recent years the DPRK has closely linked the protection of ecological environment with recycling.

Mangyong IT Company in Ryanggang Province has made a tangible contribution to protecting the environment and developing the economy of the province by making iron oxide paints from acid waste water from a mine and chips from a machine factory as materials.