

Arch of Triumph Tells

In order to convey the benevolent affection of President Kim Il Sung who won back the country lost to the Japanese imperialists and built a cradle of life on this land, the Korean people have erected many monuments which tell of his immortal exploits.

Among them is the Arch of Triumph.

The magnificent monument, built at the foot of picturesque Moran Hill in Pyongyang, conveys his immortal revolutionary exploits for national liberation to the rising generations.