

Official Name of the DPRK

The official name of our country is the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

The name represents the independent character of the state and its genuine, democratic and people-oriented character.

Today, the DPRK is demonstrating its might as the dignified socialist country of Juche and the most advantageous people-centred socialism.